

House Resolution No. 3163

Whereas, as the 2004-2005 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from longtime service to the field of education; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District is losing a valuable members of its staff with the retirement of Nancy Ragusa who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a library aide and attendance secretary; and

Whereas, Nancy Ragusa has worked for eleven years at Raytown South Middle School, where she is held in high esteem as an attendance secretary who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, Nancy Ragusa is an outstanding individual who has faithfully performed her important duties and responsibilities with the utmost professionalism, conscientiousness, and fairness; and

Whereas, Nancy Ragusa's incredible ability to plan, organize, and carry out a rigorous schedule of daily activity in the office reflects creditably upon her strong work ethic and her steadfast dedication to a high standard of excellence; and

Whereas, Nancy Ragusa will undoubtedly look back over the past eleven years and reminisce about her many worthwhile experiences and her special relationships with the many students, teachers, and staff while basking in the glow of a successful career now reaching its end:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join the Raytown C-2 School District in expressing appreciation to Nancy Ragusa for a job splendidly performed and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement she so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Nancy Ragusa.
